Dear Mr. Katen:

Lots 27 and 28 in your coming sale, being the Immune Columbia mulings, are of interest to me, and I would appreciate it very much if you would forward them to me for inspection. I know their condition is never nice, but I would like to see these coins if you would favor me to that extent. I will be glad to repay you for the expense involved, and will return the coins forthwith on their receipt.

Sincerely yours,

EPNewman/me

Dear Mr. Newman,

Thank you for your recent letter requesting lots
27 and 28 scheduled in my auction of June 18 and 19.

Under separate cover, I am mailing these to you and am very happy to be able to be of service.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Katzen:

I am returning herewith lots 27 and 28 which are scheduled for your coming auction. I greatly appreciate the fact that you sent them to me for examination. For a long time I have been endeavoring to improve my specimens of these coins, but unfortunately all of them seem more or less disreputable.

I sincerely appreciate your courtesy, and I am very sorry I cannot bid on them.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Newman,

In response to your letter requesting a method of grading Colonial Currency in my forthcoming auction I will attempt to give you a brief resume of how I arrived at grading this very difficult series.

A piece that is graded as good should be acceptable in any collection for it means that there are no pieces torn from it although it may have been folded and may have seen considerable wear. Nevertheless it does make an acceptable piece to add to ones collection. A fine piece is generally unfolded with a rather bright clean appearance. Crisp uncirculated of course is obvious and in the case of fair pieces these show very much wear and probably have pieces torn or other imperfections too difficult to describe in an auction catalog.

I make no mention whether or not they are cut cancelled excepting I believe in one case where a bill was not cancelled which was very unusual for the particular piece. The notes may or may not be cut cancelled either with the slits or the large round holes.

You can very well understand that there is a limit to space a cataloger may give this material in any auction sale due to its low price.

Always glad to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

MILFORD COIN & STAMP CO.

Dear Mr. Newman,

In my March 1949 auction sale, I had a half dozen lots of Contemporary Counterfeits of Continental Currency. Checking back on my records I find that you purchased three of them.

As I have written a paper on some of these counterfeits which is to be published in the Numismatic Scrapbook shortly, I learn that Mr. Hewitt would like to illustrate several specimen. I am wondering if it would be possible to borrow these pieces from you so that they can be photographed. If it is agreeable to you credit will be given for the loan of these pieces.

With kindest regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Katen:

I have always been very much interested in Contemporary Counterfeits of Continental Currency and examined all of Mr. Richardson's collection and his interesting memo of the distinction between genuine and counterfeit items. I presume you would be interested in genuine and counterfeit pairs and I am enclosing May 20, 1777, $6.00, $8.00 and $30.00, both genuine and counterfeit and April 11, 1778, $4.00 and $40.00, both genuine and counterfeit. I have kept a memorandum of the numbers of the bills in question. Please return these promptly after they have served your purpose.

I also have in my collection blue sheets of almost every issue which are positive certifications of all genuine Continental notes. If you need any blue sheets for comparison, please let me know.

Incidentally, if you are having photographs made, I would enjoy having a print of any you make.

If you have nothing better to do, please look through your English halfpennies of George III between 1776 and 1788 and see if you have any available.

I am very glad to be of help to you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Newman,

Thanks for the loan of five sets of notes of Continental Currency showing a comparison between the genuine and counterfeit bills.

As soon as several or all have been photographed they will be returned to you promptly. I will also have photographs made of any that are reproduced.

I am enclosing, herewith, a 1787 English Half Pence which of course as you know is counterfeit. It is the only one I have in stock at the present time. Please accept it with my complements. I did have quite a number of them but as you probably know Damon Douglas is interested in this type of material and he purchased all I had.

With kindest regards.

Dear Mr. Newman:

Thanks for your letter of the 6th relative to counterfeit Continental currency.

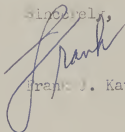

I wish I could oblige you, but I would my entire collection to a collector who wished to be anonymous.

However, I realize the value of additional research, and am therefore writing this collector to inquire if these notes may not be submitted to you.

If the answer is favorable, I shall immediately communicate with you.

Thanks for the reprint -- I have read it and found it very interesting.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Katzen:

I appreciate your note of December 10, indicating that you have written to a gentleman who wishes to stay anonymous with respect to your collection. Please assure him, or her, that I will return the notes promptly if they are sent to me; that he should keep a record of the actual numbers of the notes sent to me and I will send him a photostatic copy of the broadside issued by the Continental Congress with respect to the counterfeit Continental.

My article is now finished except for the exact description of the counterfeits. I am trying to describe the counterfeits without reference to the genuine for, very often, one does not have both for comparison.

I appreciate your cooperation very much and hope that I can get your customer's cooperation.

I am sending an extra copy of this letter in case you wish to send it to him.

I am enclosing my want list of books necessary for my research and one of my particular wants is Dye's Coin Encyclopaedia and the 1850 edition of Eckfeldt and DuBois.

I have a suggestion to make when you next publish your list of books, and that is as follows:

You have a category called "Massachusetts", and I believe my monograph on the Good Samaritan Shilling, etc. belongs in that category, as it deals entirely with coins of that colony.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Dear Mr. Kuten

I need to give to a friend
a set of the reprints of the illustrations in the Chapman
Sale Catalogue of the Jencks Collection. Someone had prints made and I don't know who. If anyone knows I thought you would. Perhaps you have a set available.

Please let me hear from you so I can keep my promise.

Sincerely

Eric P. Newman

Dear Mr. Katzen:

In your book list, I believe you should eliminate the category of "Massachusetts". Most of the items belong under "Colonial" and anyone looking under Colonial will miss the Massachusetts Colonial items.

You also do not list any other jurisdictions so I separate out Massachusetts.

Dear Mr. Newman:

Thank you for your kind words for the book list in COIN WORLD. I appreciate praise coming from a master of the pen and numismatics.

What you say about eliminating the category of "Massachusetts" is correct. Each successive year since the first issue written by Mr. Johnson, I have debated with myself on including the few books on the subject under Colonial Coins.

Now you have crystalized my thinking. It shall be done with the Seventh issue.

Best wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Dear Frank and Laurese:

Enclosed you will find check covering the recent auction purchases.

Our library requires unbound copies of THE NUMISMATIST for a couple of the issues of 1910. We also could use some of the earlier issues in unbound form. If we could get them we would have available a set of bound volumes of THE NUMISMATIST from about 1900 through 1915, as we do not wish to keep bound volumes.

If we send you an exact list of our wants, would we be able to work out something which would be mutually beneficial?

Do you have any loose NUMISMATISTS of the early period available?

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Katen:

In accordance with our correspondence, I am enclosing a list of the NUMISMATISTS I have, showing what I want, and what I will part with.

My suggestion is that I give you two numbers for each one number you find of my needs. Would that be all right with you?

In addition, I am interested in acquiring Vol. 24, No. 3 of A.J.N.

I am also interested in acquiring a Heath's Counterfeit Detector, both in the small edition and the Counting House edition, in any years of editions I do not already have. They must be complete.

There are other items which I need but I believe this is enough to get started on.

Kindest regards.

Dear Frank and Laurese:

In your auction of May 23, 1969 I received your bill for Lot No. 432 for $85.00 plus $1.20 packing.

When the lot arrived it consisted of one book, being D & H Parts 4 through Part 6 in which was bound the Water's notes. I presumed that I was buying the complete D & H publication as described in the catalogue and I was wondering where the rest of it is. The bill indicates that only one parcel was sent as the postage on the parcel I received was 70¢.

Would you please check up on where the missing portions are and send them to me.

Please let me have your prompt cooperation.

Since my recent return from my vacation, I had hoped to see you at the A.N.A. convention and talk to you about the D & H volume.

Frankly, I was very disappointed that I did not get a complete set and I thought you might be able to find the other books.

It seems to me that the one volume is virtually worthless, alone, and if it belongs to the estate, that they ought to let me keep it in view of the situation, rather than spend a lot more money shipping it. What are you going to do with it if the book is returned?

Dear Eric,

I sincerely regret the inconvenience caused you by the error in Lot No. 432. However, I must get this lot back so that it can be sold (under the conditions outlined by you that parts of the book are missing) to a friend of the consignor who will pay $65.00 for it. We all feel that the 96 page Waters book bound into the Lot is worth the price considering that only 200 copies were published.

At the above price you may have first choice if you care to buy it, otherwise please return the book insured for $100.00. I will reimburse you for the postage and insurance.

May I hear from you by return mail?

Would you be nice enough to send me a photocopy of the bid sheet of ANS at the Fuld Sale. If there are items which I bought and which the ANS wants, George and I would like to study that situation and see what we can do about it.

The second item is Lot 261 which my notes show brought $15 instead of $21. Am I right or wrong?

I'll straighten out the payment as soon as I get it all adjusted.

Dear Frank,

Thanks for the pages from the Plandome Book Auction. Others caught the error too as the 1760 and 1761 denominations were transposed in the pasteup.

Kind regards,

Sincerely,

Mr. Frank Katen

Liverpool: Published for the Proprietors, 1817. Plant Edition. 8vo. Very nice. Superf. Camp 14. One of the most important of the plates depicting animals, and especially deer, and a very clean copy. The author traveled upwards of 10,000 miles, and his account is the most important of the life history and the Yellowstone and the Grand Canyon. The plates are in color, and the yellowish tint of the paper is due to the age of the paper. There is also a vocabulary of the same language. Louis

Dear Frank:

Lot #2775 in the auction of October 18, 1982 had a broken run of 10 items of Mason's Coin Collectors Herald. I find that Vol. I, No. 1, had a missing page 7-8 and was thus incomplete. The average price for each number was $17. Do you think I should have a credit for that sum? Your consignor should be satisfied in view of that situation. I, therefore, am remitting toward your billing of $175.55 only $158.55. If you think otherwise, please advise me.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Dear Frank:

It was so nice seeing you and your wife and sister in Orlando.

Your September 3, 1992 letter asks about a book I edited. I only wrote part of it.

It is Studies on Money In Early America (NY 1976),
Eric P. Newman, Editor
Richard G. Doty, Associate Editor

It has 12 articles and an Introduction. I wrote two of the articles. It is extensively illustrated. Each author provided notes as he saw fit. It has 216 pages.

I am sure it is still obtainable from ANS if you don't already have it.

Kindest regards,

Eric P. Newman
